

Many thanks go to Greg Doyle, Annie MacLean and their helpers for hosting our 3 Lenten Lunches this month. There was a lot of work that went into the menus, and they were enjoyed by many.

CHRISM MASS : On April 11 at 12:00 noon at Saint Mary's Cathedral Basilica gather with Archbishop Mancini and the priests of the Archdiocese of Halifax-Yarmouth as we bless the Holy Oils to be used in the coming year.

Please remember parking at the Cathedral is very limited so please plan accordingly. The parishes of Saint Peter's on Maple St., in Dartmouth and Saint Agnes on Mumford Rd, in Halifax welcome those who wish to park in these church parking lots and carpool or use public transportation to get to the Chrism Mass.

Training for Parish Palliative Care Volunteers: Do you feel called to visit the sick, terminally ill, dying and bereaved in your parish community? As a member of a parish, you would represent your parish community by journeying with a person and being a loving support by listening, with some understanding of the challenges with which they may be coping, to ease the suffering and improve quality of life. Would your parish like to enhance the outreach ministry to include palliative care volunteer visits?

We are looking for people who are mature and compassionate to provide comfort and emotional support to those who are near the end of life. There is no nursing care attached to this ministry. A Parish Hospice Palliative Care course will be provided for volunteers who wish to serve in their parish community.

Please register by March 28, 2017 (earlier is better)

When: Two day certified course— April 8 and 22, 2017, 8:00am-3:30pm

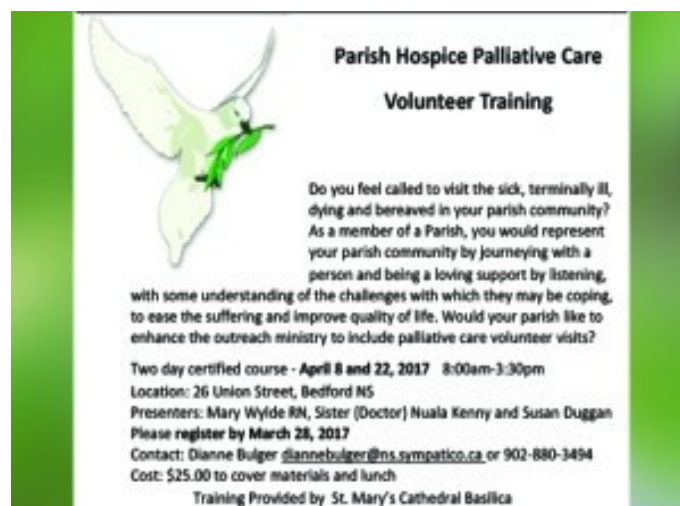

Location: 26 Union Street, Bedford NS (Chalice building)

Presenters: Mary Wylde RN, Sister (Doctor) Nuala Kenny and Susan Duggan

Cost: $25.00 to cover materials and lunch

Repent, and believe in the Gospel!

March 26, 2017

From the Desk of Fr. Paul :

On Wednesday of this week the parish will have an extended period of celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We will do this on either side of the 12:10 Mass and will include Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament as a sign and real assurance that Jesus knows our fears and reticence of perhaps choosing to go to confession – he is already there in the church waiting for us! There will be visiting priests and I encourage all of us to take advantage of this opportunity.

Lent began with the words of Jesus: “Repent and believe in the Gospel.” Repentance in the biblical sense means “to turn”, to change one’s path and course. It is a “turning 180 degrees” – a move that changes our view and changes our direction. Repentance is the fundamental disposition that describes the movement from sin to grace, from habits and ways of being that are less than what God intended us to be.

In our hearts (our conscience) we know that various times everyday, we say, do, or think things that take us away from the love of God and our neighbour – this is sin. Sins are not “accidents”; they involve freedom and choosing, even when we know something is wrong. Sin is a deliberate and willful action, word, or thought that harms our relationship to God and our neighbor.

In his opening lines from chapter 5 of the Letter to the Galatians, St. Paul says, “For freedom Christ came to set you free.” Yes! This should give us great hope. Christ’s life, his example, his sacrificial death, and now, the grace offered to us now in the sacraments of the Church Jesus founded gives us the means of rising above our sins and turning us back to God. And yet, having said all this, I easily acknowledge that going to confession is sometimes difficult – I find it difficult too! I want you to know that – we’re in this journey together!

I promise that the priests will receive you warmly, respectfully, and with their own knowledge that they also stand in need of God’s mercy. It is true that we speak about realities in confession that often no one else may know and there is always something counter intuitive about revealing our imperfections to another person. That’s certainly true. So we need to ask for a grace to trust! God won’t let us down but will give us the grace to rise above any reticence and make the decision to go. Ask for that grace if you are feeling anxious or reluctant.

In particular, I am making a special invitation to those who have been away from this sacrament for many years, to come back and celebrate it – you will feel so much better for having done so! We will feel better and renewed even if we only have small faults to confess. If it is true that daily life will continually remind us and provide plenty of examples of our human weakness, confession is also the means Jesus gives us to rise above them. It is a certain way of receiving forgiveness from God and a restoration of sanctifying grace in our soul. God’s mercy and love define who God is – it is as simple as that. So mercy and love are always more powerful than any sin we could ever have committed.

Confession is not just “dropping off” our sins, it is also “picking up” God’s grace. It gives us the means of “cleaning the slate”, a new resolve to choose a different path in our daily life.

I will be praying in our own personal prayers leading up to Wednesday that we have a large turnout. See you then!
